Home Delivery of LPG Cylinders in Manipur

761. SHRI W. ANGOU SINGH: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the names of LPG agents working in Manipur, district-wise;

(b) whether Government are aware that the LPG agents in the State have not taken up even now, the system of home delivery of cylinders to the consumers like that in other States; and

(c) if so, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM & NATURAL GAS (SHRI T.R. BAALU): (a) As on 1.10.1996, 17 LPG distributorships were in operation in the State of Manipur.

(b) and (c) In view of the difficult law and order situation prevailing in the State, the home delivery of refills was discontinued since 1991 and this was done in consultation with the State Government. In March, 1995, Government of Manipur asked IOC to explore the possibility of introducing home delivery of refills in selected areas of Imphal Town. After discussions by the Civil Administration with Oil Company officials and the distributors, the home delivery was resumed effective 2.10.1995 and 10 to 15% home delivery could be achieved. In November, 1995, due to worsening of law and order situation and imposition of curfew in the State and in view of the safety of the delivery boys and equipments, the distributors were reluctant to make home delivery of LPG cylinders. Civil Authorities have also been kept suitably informed.
